

BIESSE: Positive reactions following the STAR Conference 2006 event in Milan

Pesaro, 3 March 2006 – The results for the IVQ 2005 for Biesse S.p.A. were presented yesterday in Milan to analysts and investors, along with the short- and medium-term prospects for the company from the Marches region, which manufactures wood- glass- and stone-working machinery. During the annual STAR CONFERENCE 2006 event, held in Milan on 1-2 March, Biesse S.p.A. analysed, in particular, the macro economic situation in its main reference markets, in the light of the positive performance achieved during the last quarter of 2005, expressing particular satisfaction for the targets reached ahead of time.

"The Industrial Plan approved by Biesse S.p.A. last September", comments Biesse's President Roberto Selci, "indicated a level of turnover and profitability for 2006 that has actually already been achieved in 2005. At the root of this positive trend there is without doubt a reawakening of certain countries, particularly in Europe, that until now showed a lower propensity to invest in durable assets. For this reason, although we have no intention of projecting all the results achieved in the last quarter of 2005 in the medium term, we intend to ask the forthcoming Meeting of the Biesse B.o.D. (on 27 March next) to review the Three-year Industrial Plan so as to take into account these positive changes."
